READ! READ!! READ!!!

Many persons suffer severely by sore or weak eyes. The reflection of the sun on the snow almost blinds them, their eyes water when they are exposed to a slight wind, or have to travel or ride in the open air, a strong light blinds them, they suffer a smarting, burning sensation, as if dust was thrown in the eye, they are unable to read or write by gas or lamp light. All these troubles can usually be remedied by the use of

Dr. Pettit's American Eye Salve.

Crime its Own Avenger!

A NEW LEAF FROM A WELL-KNOWN HISTORY.

We recently published a letter in which Harlow Case, the defaulting Collector of Sandusky, announced the decease of the unhappy woman who had accompanied his flight, and implored the forgiveness of her husband. Under the title we have given above, a missionary correspondent of the Boston Watchman and Reflector describes an interview with the guilty pair, which took place shortly before death hurried away the mother and the child whom she had made the companion of her wanderings. The subject is a painful one, but the writer describes so feelingly and truthfully the self-inflicted misery of Case and his partner in guilt, that we reproduce his narrative —

One forenoon we left the little seaport town where I was sojourning, and rode a short distance into the interior of the gorgeous island. Most glorious were the surroundings on every hand. With a prodigality quite undreamed of by the inhabitants of a colder climate, nature had showered her most exquisite floral gifts everywhere.

'This is my home,' said my new friend, pointing to a low-roofed cottage, surrounded by a wide verandah, from whose clinging vines sweet odors were flung upon the soft atmosphere—but from the moment the words were uttered his sociability departed.

We were met on the threshold by a lovely child of some eleven summers. Her hair hung in curls. Her eyes particularly lustrous yet mournful in beauty, and on the young brow I seemed to see a something—a shadow of sadness—an unchildlike quiet, as she greeted my new friend.

Dressed in pure white, she glided in before us, and to her was left the duty of entertaining me, while Mr C., excusing himself in the remark that sickness necessarily called him away, for a half hour or so, left the room.

'Is your mother very unwell?' I asked of the little girl, who, with those shadow-filled eyes of hers, was regarding me gently, but attentively.

'Yes, sir, mamma has been sick a long time,' replied she, dropping her eyes, while her lips trembled

'Did you come from America?' she asked timidly, after a long silence

'Yes, my dear. Do you know anything of that country?' I returned, growing more and more pleased with her expressive face

'Only that mamma came from there, and I think,' she added hesitatingly, 'that I did—But Mr C. will never let me talk about it.'

'Are you, then, not the little daughter of Mr C.?' I asked, somewhat astonished.

'I am my mother's daughter,' answered the child, with a grave dignity in one so young—and a minute after she arose and quietly left the room

I sat watching her white robes flitting through the long shady walk opposite my window, and knew that the child brooded over some dark sorrow, her eyes were filled with tears.

Why was it, I questioned myself, that painful thought took possession of me as I sat there? It seemed as if I were sojourning in an enchanted spot, and that some horror was suddenly to break upon me

At my side, nearly covering a beautiful table of letter-wood, were several costly gilt books. I took them carefully, for I have a reverence for books—and turning to the fly-leaf of a splendidly bound copy of Shakespeare, read—

'To Mary Frances F——, from her devoted husband—Henry L. F——.'

A thrill of surprise and anguish ran from vein to vein. My thoughts seemed paralyzed. The truth had burst upon me with such suddenness that the blood rushed with a shock to my heart

I knew Henry L. F——, had known him intimately for years. He was a friend toward whom all my sympathies had been drawn, for he had seen such sorrow as makes the heart grow old before its time.

His wife, whom he loved, had deserted him. She had taken with her his only child. She had desolated a household, and forgetting honor, shame, everything that pertains to virtue and to God, had fled from the country with the man whose arts had won her wanton love

How could I remain under this roof that now seemed accursed? How meet the destroyer of virtue—the fiend who had revelled in such a conquest?

I could only think of the evil they had done—not what they might suffer through the tortures of remorse. It was some time before the seducer came into the room where I still sat with the child, determined to meet him once more before I left the house

Oh how guilty! how heart-stricken! he appeared! Remorse sat on his forehead—looked out from his eyes—spoke when he was silent.

'Will you come to dinner?' he asked.

I hesitated. Should I partake of his hospitality, the hospitality of one of those fiends in human shape whose steps take hold on hell? I knew his guilt—why delay to declare it?—Why not at once in burning words, upbraid him for his villainy, and flee as from a pestilence his sin-cursed house? The man noticed my hesitation. He could not, of course, interpret its cause. As he repeated his request, the look of distress upon his face, excited a feeling of pity, which, for the moment, slightly disarmed my resentment, and under this feeling, almost unconsciously passed into the dining-room.

'I am sorry little Nelly's mamma'—(I was glad he did not use the sacred name of wife)—'is not able to sit down with us,' he said.—'It is many months since we have had her presence at our meals. She is suffering from the effects of slow fever, induced by the climate,' he added, gravely, as he motioned me to a seat before him.

The table glittered with silver plate. Obedient servants brought on the most costly services, delicacies such as I had never before seen.

But the skeleton sat at the feast!

I could not talk, save in monosyllables—My host ate hastily—almost carelessly waiting upon me, with many abrupt starts and apologies

Wine came. He drank freely. Soon he sent the little girl and servants from the room, and seemed striving to nerve himself to conversation.

'You are from —— city, I believe,' he said nervously,

I answered in the affirmative.

'Did you ever know a gentleman there by the name of H. L. F——?'

'I know him, sir,' I said sternly, looking the man steadily in the face, 'and I know him also as a ruined, heart-broken man.'

With an ejaculation of anguish, he put his handkerchief to his eyes. It would have seemed hypocritical but the suffering on his face was unmistakable

'Perhaps you have a special [illegible],' he began in a quivering voice

Not calmly, but with the words of an accuser, I told him what I had seen and thought and felt.

'Sir,' said he, [illegible] I never forget, [illegible] I have [illegible] Heaven knows I have suffered, and [illegible] has cursed me, the curse [illegible] Poor Mary is dying—has been dying for months, and I have known it. A MURDER REVEALED BY A DREAM.—A miraculous discovery of a [illegible] is related by a [illegible] journal [illegible], of which we make a summary.

Two citizens [illegible] Jews, set out from Gereck with a view of placing their two [illegible] at a boarding school in the town of Gruswer. [illegible] During the night of their absence, [illegible] youngest daughter, aged ten, who was [illegible] ing, woke up her mother suddenly [illegible] and crying [illegible] declared that she saw her father and [illegible] being murdered.—The mother, for some time, took [illegible] the child's declaration, but, seeing [illegible] and would not be pacified, she [illegible] to be alarmed herself, and the next morning [illegible] to the Mayor [illegible] to whom she declared her dream, stating at the same time that the murderers were two men living in the neighborhood [illegible] she immediately pointed out, and [illegible] the murder was committed at the [illegible] on the road to Gruswer.

The Mayor, after receiving this revelation, thought it prudent to make inquiry after the two neighbors indicated by the child, who, singular enough, they were discovered to be absent from home. This suspicious circumstance induced the Mayor to despatch some officers to the forest alluded to by the child, who discovered the horrible spectacle of five bodies extended on the ground, which were those of the two brothers, the two daughters, and the driver of the vehicle in which they all took their departure. The corpses appeared to have been set on fire, so as to destroy their identity, and the vehicle was nowhere discovered. This horrible tragedy led the officers to examine the whole neighborhood, when they fortunately pounced upon the two neighbors at a fair not far distant, as they were in the very act of changing some notes on which some spots of blood were visible. On being seized they immediately confessed their crime, and on the child's dream being revealed to them, acknowledged the finger of Providence in their capture. This wonderful dream on the part of the child, and its fulfilment excited an immense sensation in the neighborhood peare, however, that no blame attaches to any body, for when the news of the accident was circulated the citizens very promptly called a town meeting and by a decisive vote authorized their select men to lease proprietals for making the necessary excavation to release the unfortunate individual. A contract was made, but the original contractor after digging a day or two sold out to speculators who were not expert in the business, and the work has consequently made slow progress. It is thought, however, that the work will be completed before the 1st of April ensuing.—Boston Herald.

THE CUBA QUESTION A Washington correspondent of the N Y. Tribune,' after commenting upon the evident fact that Mr. Buchanan and the pro slavery democracy are bent upon attaining Cuba, in order to fortify the slave power, says, with much force, in reference to the duty of the Republican party—that they should—

1st. Be vigilant and allow no traps to be sprung.

2d Permit all other opponents of Cuban annexation to oppose it in their own way, and for their own reasons.

3d. But, as to the Republican party itself, it should leave no doubt of its hostility to the measure, for the reason that Cuba is a slaveholding island, and that that hostility will exist so long as Slavery continues there. It must remove all shade of suspicion that it will rely upon any promises of future abolition, or be wheedled by any wily scheme of first obtaining the island and then applying the Wilmot Proviso to it; or deluded by the specious policy of acquiring it as a slaveholding Territory, and afterwards resisting its admission as a slaveholding State

The Negro Propaganda will not yield till they have made an effort, perhaps many efforts, for territorial expansion in a southward direction The struggle will be severe. If the Republican party stands firm, it will be decisive, and from the hour when the Propaganda shall be defeated, the decadence of Slavery in the Union will be rapid.

MRS CONRAD, the young Southern widow, whom a correspondent of the New York Times pronounces a "Talleyrand in crinoline," is said to be the lady who proposed to carry through Congress, last year, a claim in relief of P K. Collins, of New York, for a very large amount, on condition that she should be paid the sum of $20,000. The facts may not sustain these reports, however, though no one doubts that Mrs. C. "takes to politics and plots just as naturally as young school girls do to bright ribbons, rich laces and Parisian gloves."

A GOOD HIT. Mr. Broderick of California, while speaking upon the Pacific Railroad bill, the other day, made a point against the Southern strict constructionists. These very conscientious gentlemen oppose an appropriation to build a railroad to California, "because the Constitution grants to Congress no power to make such appropriations!" "Yet," says Senator Broderick, "these strict constructionists to a man vote a thirty million corruption fund into the hands of the President under the pretence of buying Cuba!"

LANDS AND INDUSTRY PROSPECTS.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Times says the President is preparing a Special message, showing the deplorable condition of the Treasury. This message is now nearly ready for transmission to Congress, and will show as follows

The Tribune's correspondent says:

"I learn that the Southern Democrats in the House are nearly unanimous in their opposition to any modification. They consider Pennsylvania as irretrievably lost to the party any how, and deem it suicidal to try to regain her. The President, however, expresses much indignation at the action of the caucus. Secretary Cobb being asked last night what was the difference between him and Mr Buchanan, replied that 'The President is opposing the Administration.' Mr. Bigler declared in the caucus that the vote not to modify the Tariff surrendered Pennsylvania to the Republicans. Mr. Douglas participated in the caucus, and voted in the majority."

The correspondent of the Philadelphia North American says:

"The only possible hope for a modification of the tariff this session, is through the action of a conference committee in its closing hours. That last chance is desperate, and depends entirely upon the refusal of the House to grant the loan, except upon this express condition. The Republicans have held a caucus, and unanimously agreed to vote for a modification of the tariff. Their stand is clear, positive and unqualified, as will be seen whenever the test shall be made in the House.

For the Whig and Courier.

"Mutual Homes."

We have mutual associations and companies wherein shares and efforts are united for carrying on enterprises—religious, moral and money-making—producing results that no isolated effort could begin to. We unite in building churches and supporting preaching, so that it costs each but a few dollars to have a comfortable or even elegant house, well furnished, and provided with light and warmth when needed, and to hear the most acceptable preaching year in and out. And so with many other enterprises.

But there is one very important matter, that seems never to have entered the minds of many in all these associations, only those dreamy specialists, who are noted but for running every project thus undertaken into the ground. That is—Association for living.—Union in every thing else saves expense—and this is no exception to the general rule. Two men own adjoining lots, and are to build houses on them. Every one knows who knows anything about it, that if they only join their houses together in building, they make a saving. Now supposing they join and build one house instead of two, just as large, and of course there would be more available room in it, there would be a still greater saving. Now the house being built there is saving in carrying it on; one fire in the kitchen, one cook instead of two, and so on. Now suppose a house be so arranged that twenty families could be accommodated in it as the two could above—in all their private relations being as private as though they had no neighbors at all—how much greater the saving would be! Is not this matter worthy of attention? In these hard and trying times there can be no doubt of it.

There are scores of men in Bangor with incomes of $400 to $600, who find it exceedingly hard to get along and support a small family respectably in the isolated household—They have to forego many comforts and totally deny themselves of luxuries. If this is the case with those of such incomes, how must it be with those who have not half these amounts! There is not the least doubt but a saving of fifty per cent might be made in this matter of living by a suitably arranged association.

There are now in this city two houses for rent, large enough to accommodate twenty moderate families, with not extravagant ideas, and the writer of this article would be really glad to see a union of those who would like to try the experiment of a Mutual Home—Who will join in the move for a cheap and good Home? B.

A Custom Fit to be Relished.

Messrs. Wheeler & Lynde

Having attended meetings on the last Sabbath in three different churches, my attention was drawn most emphatically to the amount of gunshary carried on in each, from the crack of the pocket pistol to the sharp response of the rifle, from that to the "queen's arm," and last, though not least, came the "twenty-four pounders" which opened up the lower strata.

Now in these discharges, I have no idea that any lady or gentleman was annoyed. But in my country, you would be much more likely to see a man hawk and spit on his own parlor carpet, in presence of the most delicate company, than while in church, and in proof of this remark, will you be so kind as to copy into your columns, for the benefit of your readers, a few paragraphs from the closing pages of Mr Ware's book upon the Capitals of Europe.

Mr. Ware says:

One trait more, though with the risk of disgusting some and offending more—though I will hope not. An Englishman, I believe, rarely chews, and, compared with the American, rarely smokes, but whether he does not fiercely proclaim both these abominations I am not prepared to say. But with both these propensities, if it be so, one thing he never does, is, to spit. The American spits always, and everywhere, sometimes when it is necessary; always when it is not. He spits at home and abroad, by night and by day, awake and asleep, in company and in solitude, for his own amusement and the edification of a spitting community.

There are certainly parts of the country comparatively, but only comparatively, free from this vice. Here at the north there is much less than at the west and the south, though here enough of it to disgust one with his race. In proportion as general refinement prevails, the custom abates As it is south, no carpets, no rooms, no presence affords protection. Here, in the best rooms, the best society, there is a partial exemption; thoughnot often enough from the presence of that ingenious, inartful patent, the Bieken, china, or earthen box

Would that my country could be induced to pause in its too wonderful career! Fifty some public effort could not be made by way of general conversation, or otherwise, for the abatement of the national mischief—certainly as worthy of attention, as very many of our political and moral reforms

EXCHANGE QUOTATIONS.—We observe in a "Bank Note List," frequently copied in this State, that the Orocus' and Hancock Bank notes are quoted at "90 per cent discount," and those of the Maritime Bank of Bangor, at 95 per cent. Now the fact is, (and we have called attention to it once or twice before) the bills of the Orocus and Hancock Banks still is circulation are not worth anything, as those banks have closed and the time for receiving bills has expired. The Maritime Bank bills, if any are yet out, will be redeemed in full, by presentation at the counter of the Norombega Bank of this city.

BUSINESS AND CHINCHING.—As evidence of improvement in business the Bath Times cites the fact that a large number of ladies were promenading the streets of that city on Monday. And the editor exclaims, in a transport of admiration: "It was a lovely sight to behold so much beauty and crinoline combined!" We hope some friend will restrain our Kennebec brother, and suggest to him that popular sovereignty is a safer subject of contemplation than crinoline—although the latter is decidedly more "popular" than the former.

We trust our friends of the Augusta Age will not fail of suggesting to M. Abbe to have that trough well filled, when he sends it along. It says this is a different plan from that of Col. Smart—as it strikes off from the proposed county the towns of Searsmont, Lincolnville and Islesboro' in Waldo; and adds Cushing and Friendship in Lincoln. If the new county is made, the Advertiser goes in for making Thomaston the shire town.

One half of ship Zingari, 716 tons, built at Pembroke, in 1856, has been sold in New York, at $8000, cash.

STABBING AFFRAY.—On Wednesday morning about 3 o'clock, John Alquat was stabbed in the arm by a sailor, on the platform of the Knox Hotel. Mr. A. had the assailant and another sailor in charge, carrying them down from St George to Bath. The altercation took place while the stage was waiting.—Thomaston Advertiser.

NARROW ESCAPE.—We learn from the Portland Advertiser that while Rev. Mr. Perrin, of Chebeague was attempting to leave the cars of the Grand Trunk train on Commercial street whilst in motion, his foot slipped and he fell between the rails. Two cars passed over him completely stripping his clothing from his back, and inflicting two severe wounds upon his head, but breaking no bones.

Sch Tiger of Hampden, at New York, from Savanilla, started deck load, and was obliged to throw part of it overboard in a gale 9th ult lat 21 02 lon 80.

D. C. Magoun, Esq., sold at auction yesterday one half of the ship Revenue of this port, for $17,000. Capt. Geo. A. Preble was the purchaser. The Revenue was built in 1857, was coppered in Sept. 1855, and measures 1816 tons.—Bath Times.

GREAT EXPRESS ROBBERY. Augusta, Ga., 31st. At 10½ Express Company was robbed of $40,000, between Montgomery and Atalanta, on Friday. The money was in gold and bills on Georgia and South Carolina banks.—A reward of $5000 is offered.

WHAT IS DEMOCRATIC DOCTRINE. The New York Day-Book, a staunch Administration journal, thus speaks of "Squatter Sovereignty:"

"The time has arrived when the Democratic party, in consonance with the Supreme Court decision, should repudiate this heresy It has now done so unmistakably and emphatically. The idea that a few settlers in a Territory, rushed in there by Emigrant Aid Societies, can exclude Southern citizens with their rights of property as guaranteed by the Constitution, is so preposterous that it only needs to be presented to the minds of the people to be at once rejected. Senator Douglas will find that the Democratic party will never uphold such a position—the Dred Scott decision in its entirety must be accepted as the real practical, living issue, and the rights of all citizens in the common Territory of the Union must be contested without any special pleading or legal technicalities."

RE OPENING OF THE SLAVE TRADE.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Commercial Advertiser says:

"It is evident from the remarks of Southern members in the late debate on the slave trade suppression, that there is a growing opposition among them and their constituents to the present pitiful law, and that they intend to make the repeal of that law the great issue at the coming Presidential election, and in all elections of members of Congress.

The African slave trade and the acquisition of Cuba will become, though they are not now, the absorbing issues in the South. The large body of conservative Southern men have now an influence, but it is on the decline, and they must be overwhelmed by the clamor of the demagogues."

THE RICHEST MAN IN PROVIDENCE.—How he Loved The Hartford Post, in speaking of Cyrus Butler of Providence, says he was worth, when he died some five millions of dollars, yet he lived poorer than most men not worth one thousand dollars. Salt codfish was a standard dish with him, and even in his last sickness, it is said that he upbraided those who had the care of him for their extravagance in providing delicacies for him, assuring them that he could not afford it. He was a bachelor, and a snuff taker. His snuff he kept in a large box and bought it by the cart's worth. There was but one store in Providence, and that on India Point, where he could get his box, filled for a cent, and the old man used to patronize that store, more than a mile distant, whenever his box required filling.

A HOOSIER AT THE ASTOR.—B. met on the brink an elderly Hoosier, who had been to the show-case exhibitum at New York, and who had seen the lions as he called it.

"Did you remain long in New York?" inquired B.

"Well, no," he answered thoughtfully, "only two days, for I saw there was a right smart chance of starving to death, and I'm opposed to that way of going down. I put up at one of their taverns, and allowed I was going to be treated to the whole."

"Where did you stop?" asked B., interrupting him.

"At the Astor House I allow you don't ketch me in in such a place again. They rung a gong, as they call it, four times after breakfast, and then, when I went to eat, there wasn't nary victles on the table."

"What was there?" B. ventured to squire.

"Well, and the old man, enumerating the items cautiously, as if from fear of omission,—"there was a clean plate wrong side up, a knife, a clean towel, a spit spoon and a handbill, and what was worse" added the old man, "the insultin' nigger up and asked me what I wanted. 'Victles,' said I, 'bring on your victles, and I'll help myself.'"

The fishermen of Maine have not been paid their bounties yet, and the reason the government gives is that there is no money in the treasury to pay from, but at the same time the democratic leaders at Washington, the Douglasites among them, are preparing a bill to be offered in Congress authorizing the President to pay Spain three millions dollars for Cuba!! This is modern democracy.—Biddeford Union.

Canker Remedy & Pain Reliever.

STRONG TESTIMONY. The following certificate of a remarkable cure wrought by this valuable remedy, will, no doubt, command attention and convince every one that this medicine has extraordinary virtues. Read, read!

THIS may certify that I have been a great sufferer and have with inflammatory rheumatism, for 15 years In the mean time I have tried many outward applications and 4 different Liniments, but found no relief. The first of October, 1858, I began to use Rev. T. Hill's Canker Remedy and Pain Reliever. The first application gave relief of pain in less than 15 hours, and began to reduce the swelling the next morning. In three days the pain and swelling was entirely gone. ALBERT LYFORD.

ANOTHER NEW STORY

TO BE PRINTED IN THE
NEW YORK SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE

SYLVAN HOLT'S DAUGHTER,

A NOVEL,

By HOLME LEE, author of "Kathie Brande."

We shall commence the publication of the above new novel in THE SEMI WEEKLY TRIBUNE on Tuesday, February 1. In order to secure the first part of this extremely interesting and really good novel, our patrons should renew their subscriptions at once, and those who have never taken the Semi-Weekly Tribune should send their names in immediately The SEMI-WEEKLY TRIBUNE is printed on a sheet of the same size as THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE, and contains all the important Foreign and Domestic News of the day, our varied and copious correspondence—Home and Abroad—Reports of the Proceedings of Congress, Legislative Doings, important Agricultural information, full reports of the Markets, &c

The following extracts from the leading Literary Journals of London, will give the reader an idea of what is thought of this new novel in Europe.

"We can say of 'Sylvan Holt's daughter,' what few fictions would justify us in saying, that we believe no one can read it without becoming wiser and better, or without a feeling of gratitude to the writer who can present to us such varied aspects of our common nature in so pleasant and judicious a style, without one word or one idea to shock or deny even the most sensitive moral feeling We know of no work superior in the idiomatic vigour of its style or in the delicacy and truth of its feeling It is evidently the result of profound observation and careful study, and could have been written only by a person of great analytic powers, and an intimate acquaintance with the springs and motives of human conduct in almost every station of life"—Illustrated News of the World.

"This is a really good novel. * * * The tone is healthy and natural, the moral become inculcated useful and important, and the language exceedingly happy and well chosen"—London Literary Gazette

"'Sylvan Holt's Daughter' is a fascinating young woman, with whom we recommend our readers to make acquaintance for themselves. It is well and solidly written There is nothing slight or superficial The author has evidently wished to do her best, and she has succeeded in writing a novel that is well worth reading, and which possessed the rare and real virtue of being extremely interesting."—London Athenæum.

"It has body and substance and is written in careful and good English"—Saturday Review

TO OUR FRIENDS

BANGOR DAILY WHIG AND COURIER.

TELEGRAPHIC.

TO THE DAILY WHIG AND COURIER

Congressional.

WASHINGTON, 2d.

SENATE.—A message was received covering the correspondence of our government with Prussia concerning the alleged compulsion enlistment of American citizens in the Prussian army.

The Senate adopted a resolution from the Judiciary Committee approving Mr Reed's consulate regulations in China, and referred to the Post Office Committee a bill introduced by Mr Broderick of Cal., for establishing a line of steamers between San Francisco and Shanghai.

A motion was also adopted for the production of the correspondence of the government with Prussia concerning the alleged compulsory enlistment of American citizens in the Prussian army.

The House bill for the punishment of counterfeiters of military land warrants was read and passed.

Mr Bayard of Del., from the Judiciary Committee, said he would to-morrow report on the Indiana election case in response to the memorial of McCarthy and Lane, claiming to be Senators.

The Agricultural College bill was taken up, and on motion of Mr Pugh was recommitted, ayes 26, nays 25.

The Indiana Appropriation bill was then taken up and further debated, but without taking a vote upon it the Senate went into executive session, and on the opening of the doors adjourned.

HOUSE.—Mr Greenwood reported a bill providing for the issue of Land patents to the Shawnee Indians and their naturalization as citizens of the United States. A debate ensued.

The bill was rejected by nine majority.

Mr Taylor of La., made an unsuccessful attempt to introduce a bill providing for the acquisition of Cuba by negotiation.

The House then went into Committee of the Whole on the Judicial Legislature and executive appropriation bill.

A desultory debate followed, Messrs Garnett of Va., Giddings of Ohio, Smith of Ill., Bingham and Stanton of Ohio advocating retrenchment, and Messrs Davis of Miss., Phelps of Mo., Phillips of Penn., and Keitt of S. C., defending the appropriation.

On a motion to reduce the appropriation for mileage, Mr Bingham said the abuse of mileage ought not to be tolerated. The rates were fixed unequally, some members receiving nearly $20,000, others only $64. The item of $200,000 for mileage was stricken out by nine majority.

Without coming to any conclusion in regard to the bill the House took a recess until seven o'clock. On re-assembling a general debate took place.

WASHINGTON, Feb 2.

In pursuance of the resolution adopted at the Democratic Caucus on the tariff last night, Messrs Garrett, Vallandingham, Crawford, Brunell (?) and Marshall of Ill., were appointed a committee to report at the adjourned meeting on Saturday, some plan of retrenchment in the expenditures of the government.

The Select Committee appointed to examine the accounts of Mr Seaman, late Superintendent of public printing, expect to complete their labors next week.

The Select Committee to examine into the alleged abuses in the Navy Department and Navy Yards, have already summoned and continue summoning, more witnesses than they can conveniently examine during the present session.

The Senate in executive session to-day, resumed the consideration of the nomination of Emery D Potter as Collector of Toledo, but as no quorum was present the question was not taken.

The Committee on Military Affairs are still engaged in the consideration of the Oregon and Washington Indian war debt. Ex-Gov.'s Lane and Stevens, the delegates from these Territories last night, had a hearing on the subject before the Committee.

Revival of the Opposition line to California.

NEW YORK, 2d.

The Vanderbilt opposition line to California advertises the Northern Light to sail for Aspinwall tenth of March to connect with the Uncle Sam on the Pacific.

The annual report of the Nova Scotia Telegraph Company has been published and distributed in the city from which it appears that there were thirty thousand messages passed through the Halifax office to and from other offices in the province last year. It also appears that the annual receipts of the company less the amount paid the connecting lines were $20,900 and that the repairing and the working of the lines cost a trifle over $17,000, other expenses have absorbed the whole of the receipts and the directors say it appears that when the country offices are taken collectively the whole expense of maintaining and working them exceeds the income by about $100 and that the profits of the company are derived exclusively from the Halifax office.—The directors also state that with all their endeavors and constant and wearisome attention the expenses of the lines continue to absorb all of their receipts, and yet there are the lines which certain speculators in Boston and New York have been trying to induce the mercantile community to purchase at the round sum of $120,000, or to lease at a corresponding figure.

BOSTON, 2d.

Cape Haytien dates of Jan'y 13 report everything quiet there, but measures were in active progress for the organization and permanent establishment of the republic.

The new political movement has enlisted the sympathies and support of the commercial class generally, and important aid had been tendered Gen Geffard.

Soulouque and his army was in very destitute condition. He had placed his family and treasure on board a vessel at Port au Prince, and there is no doubt of his intention of making his escape from the country.

Legislature of Maine.

TUESDAY, Feb 1.

In the Senate, the bill to incorporate Mermaid Bank was read and assigned.

Resolve authorising the payment of $10,000 to the Trustees of the Maine State Seminary, was read a second time and passed to be engrossed, 18 to 5, after some amendments.

Resolve authorising the Land Agent to grant permits on certain lands set apart for local purposes, was read a second time.

Mr. McClusky moved to amend by allowing "permits" to be granted on any lands owned by the State. He said the resolve would be useless as it now stands.

Mr. Berry opposed the amendment.

On motion of Mr. Harris the bill was laid on the table.

In the House.

Mr. Smart of Camden, asked and obtained leave to lay upon the table bill an act giving further remedies against attornies, which he said was to compel attornies to pay over to clients promptly all monies in their hands; and on his motion it was referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

On motion of Mr Prentiss of Bangor,

Ordered, That the papers of last year relating to the Bangor Mutual Fire Insurance Co. be taken from the files of the last Legislature and referred to the Committee on Mercantile Affairs and Insurance.

On motion of Mr Burbank of Lewiston,

Ordered, That the Committee on Manufactures be instructed to inquire into the expediency of exempting from taxation manufacturing establishments erected in this State within three years from the first day of Jan'y, A. D. 1859, and all the machinery and capital for operating the same, as also all machinery put into buildings now erected but not occupied, and the capital for working the same; said exemption to continue until the year 1867.

The order for a committee to visit the State Prison passed.

Mr Prentiss of Bangor, from the Committee on Biennial Sessions, made a report upon that subject, with a resolve accompanying, providing for a submission of the subject to the people.

The report and resolve, were on motion of Mr Burbank of Lewiston, laid upon the table and ordered to be printed, and Wednesday of next week assigned for their further consideration.

Mr Prentiss moved to amend the Resolve, submitting to the people the question so as to provide for such amendment to the Constitution as shall abolish the Executive Council, and establish the office of Auditor of Accounts. He advocated the measure at some length.

Messrs. Pike of Calais and Egbert of Bath made some remarks in opposition,—after which the amendment was ordered to be printed with the report.

Albert Hayford member elect from the town of Dablois, appeared and was qualified.

Petitions Referred—Of Abraham Woodard and others, of Bangor, to be incorporated for the purpose of supplying Bangor with water from Pushaw Pond; of John Neptune and others, Penobscot Indians, for a law providing for leasing the shores of Islands belonging to Indian tribes; of Geo. C. Getchell and 133 others of Anson and vicinity, for a railroad from Waterville to Carry tonk Falls; of Joseph N. Hasseltine and others, to make valid the doings of School District No. 9, composed in part of Dexter and Garland.

Bill to amend charter of Piscataquis Mutual Fire Insurance Company. Passed to be enacted.

DINNER TO MR. BLAIR OF MISSOURI.—A few of the political friends of this gentleman gave him a dinner at the Parker House in Boston on Saturday last. The Courier says that Gov Banks presided till he was called away by another engagement, when Mr Josiah Quincy, Jr, took his place. Speeches were made by Mr Blair, Gov Banks, Mr Charles Francis Adams, Mr Josiah Quincy, Jr, the Rev Starr King, and John S. Tyler. During the evening a message was received from the "Atlantic Club," dining in another room of the hotel, inviting Mr Blair to call upon them as an amendment, the gentlemen composing the Club were requested to join the larger party. This invitation being accepted, Messrs Agassiz, Lowell, Holmes, Longfellow, Whipple, Emerson, Dana, and Lord Radstock, entered the room, and were cordially received.

Mothers! Mothers! Mothers!

Don't fail to procure Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. It has no equal on earth. It greatly facilitates the process of teething, by softening the gums, reducing all inflammation—will allay all pain and is sure to regulate the bowels. Depend upon it, mothers, it will give rest to yourselves, and relief and health to your infants. Perfectly safe in all cases.

This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the most experienced and skillful female Physicians in New England, and has been used with never failing success in millions of cases.

We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world in all cases of Dysentery and Diarrhea in children whether it arises from teething or from any other cause.

If life and health can be estimated by dollars and cents it is worth its weight in gold.

Millions of bottles are sold every year in the United States. It is an old and well tried remedy.

Opinion of the prominent Druggists of Cincinnati.

We, the undersigned, druggists of this city, have been acquainted with, and sold for a year or two past, an article of Family Medicine known as Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer, and we would assure the public that in every instance, so far as we know, it has given the best satisfaction to the purchaser. We can recommend it to the public as an article

OF GREAT MERIT AND VIRTUE

Indeed, we never knew an article of Medicine become so deservedly popular in so short a time, which is proved by the fact of its unlimited sale, and constantly increasing demand.

Signed—J D Park, Chas Collins, S S Farris, J D Dougherty, Able Rotler, A D Rossell, W J M Gordon, S B Sinton, G M Dixon, Wade Eckstein & Co, I & E Keeler.

Dear Sir—I became your agent without feeling any interest in the medicine, but I soon became very much interested upon seeing the happy effect it had upon many persons. The increased sales in this State are truly astonishing. I might have collected any number of certificates of its great power in relieving pain, if I had attended to it at the time, the cures came under my observation. The least I can say for the Pain Killer is, that it fully sustains the purpose for which it is recommended.

LINCOLN'S WATER PROOF BLACKING, AND LEATHER PRESERVATIVE.

Keep your Feet dry and you will seldom need a Physician.

It is not a truth that when the feet are often wet it is one of the greatest causes of colds and consumption? It is a truth that when feet are often wet, the hide, it soon becomes hard and stiff, and cracks, but when it is water proof this is remedied By the application of this preservative, it remains soft, and entirely impervious to water

After being engaged for 25 years in the manufacture of Leather in all its branches, and being often troubled with wet feet myself, I resolved to experiment on different compositions, and found it easy to make it water proof and at the same time extremely injurious to the leather At last by a chemical process, I discovered a preparation which perfectly harmonizes with the astringent properties with which leather is tanned It will not only make leather water proof, but it likewise softens the leather and it will Positively wear twice as long.

I have now used it for three years and a large part of that time have worked in a wet Tannery with my boots constantly in the water, and have not had my feet wet during that me I can therefore in all confidence, recommend it to the public as the best article in the market.

THE LUXURY AND PROFIT OF

HONEY MAKING.

Torrey's Bee Hive.

THE subscriber, having purchased the right of making and selling Dorsey's Patent Bee Hive for the Counties of Penobscot, Lincoln and Sagadahoc; which has been received with so much favor, and taken the first premiums wherever exhibited, has introduced an improvement into the Bee Hive and is now prepared to make the same in connection with the Dorsey Platform, and to sell rights to towns and individuals

This Bee Hive, thus improved, is admitted by persons acquainted with the honey making business to be superior to every thing yet invented for the purpose. It covers all the requisitions for the profitable maintenance of the apiary, by providing for ventilation at all seasons of the year—room for the exercise and feed of the bees—convenience for the removal of excrement, for the proper separation of the swarms, and generally for the health and comfort of the workers

The boxes used in the Hive for storing honey, are the best adapted in their size for the market, holding from three to six pounds each.

The subscriber wishes to purchase one hundred swarms of bees in exchange for bee hives and individual rights.

For sale, fifty swarms of bees, with the new hives

A Perfect Security against all manner of Fraud or Counterfeiting on Paper—To Prevent Photographs and Ancatare Counterfeits, Erasures, Transfers or Alterations.

HAVING purchased the Patent for the exclusive right to manufacture and sell the Chemical Paper in America, invented and patented in England by HENRY GLYNN, a celebrated chemist and officer in the British army, it is hardly necessary to say that the Paper is recommended by Mr Kent, Assayer of the U S. Mint, Mr Lyman of the New York Clearing House and Meade Brothers, extensive and skilful photographers, 233 Broadway, N. Y. The latter say that no imitation can be made on a check or bank note printed on the Safety Paper Below is our list of prices

Bank Checks—$5 cts per lb
Bank Bills—$18 for 1000 sheets
Bills of Exchange—$25 for 1000 sheets
Promissory Notes—40 cts per lb
Sight and Time Drafts—$25 for 1000 sheets

For wrapping Silks and other fine articles it is excellent, as it prevents moths 40 cts a lb

For Indentures and Agreements, 40 cts a lb

All State and County Records should always be printed or written on this paper, as the chemicals inserted in the pulp not only prevents erasure or transfer, but makes it lasting as time

For Southern climates it is excellent, and much superior to any other, as the moistness of the climate does not destroy it,—the properties inserted in the pulp being a preventive In all the Southern States, Cuba, the West Indies, and the Central American States, no public records can be kept over 20 years, written on the ordinary paper, while the oils and other chemicals inserted in this paper makes it indestructible by the ravages of time. It is also proof against moths, rats and other vermin, which feast on and destroy all other paper now in use

The Company have now in operation Mills in Morris County, N J., of about 300 horse power, and are able to fill all orders for Paper at the shortest notice

All orders for the Paper must be addressed to A NICHOLAS, President of the Company, No 70 Wall street, New York

SOLICITOR OF PATENTS,

Late Agent of U. S Patent Office, Washington under the Act of 1837.)

BOSTON.

AFTER an extensive practice of upwards of twenty years, continues to secure Patents in the United States, also, in Great Britain, France, and other foreign countries Caveats, Specifications Bonds, Assignments, and all Papers or Drawings for Patents, executed on liberal terms, and with despatch Researches made into American or Foreign works, to determine the validity or utility of Patents or Inventions—and legal or other advice rendered in all matters touching the same Copies of the claims of any Patent furnished by remitting One Dollar Assignments recorded at Washington

The Agency is not only the largest in New England, but through it inventors have advantages for securing Patents, of ascertaining the patentability of inventions unsurpassed by, if not immeasurably superior to, any which can be offered them elsewhere The Testimonials below given prove that none is MORE SUCCESSFUL AT THE PATENT OFFICE than the subscriber, and as SUCCESS IS THE BEST PROOF OF ADVANTAGES AND ABILITY, he would add that he has abundant reason to believe, and can prove, that at no other office of the kind are the charges for professional services so moderate. The immense practice of the subscriber during twenty years past has enabled him to accumulate a vast collection of special, also official decisions relative to patents These, besides his extensive library of legal and mechanical works, and full accounts of patents granted in the United States and Europe, render him able, he and confident, to offer superior facilities for obtaining Patents

All necessity of a journey to Washington, to procure a patent, and the usual great delay there are here saved inventors

BOSTON WEEKLY JOURNAL

Great Success of the Club Plan.

Three years ago the Proprietors of the Weekly Journal issued their prospectus, and stated that if they could get a club of 20 subscribers in each town in New England, they would be satisfied with the result. Many of the friends of the paper in the country responded to the call, and the Weekly Journal has become a favorite throughout New England. Many of the clubs have been kept up from the first, and the Proprietors are now receiving large additions to their lists from the clubs. They will be glad to receive the names of clubs from any town in New England, and will send specimen copies to any address.

Terms invariably in advance.

Remittances may be made at our risk in bills of any solvent bank, or in a letter postage paid, addressed to the publishers. Bills of all banks in the New England States are received at par.
